DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On June 12, 2020, Richard P. Bures filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") as a result of an influenza vaccine administered on October 9, 2018. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges the vaccine was administered in the United States, he suffered sequelae of his injury for more than six months, and he has not received compensation or filed a civil action for vaccine-related injuries prior to filing his petition. Petition at ¶¶ 2, 15-16. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

¹ Because this unpublished Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I am required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

On December 15, 2021, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On February 9, 2022, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation ("Proffer") indicating Petitioner should be awarded $72,554.61. Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $72,554.61 (representing $72,500.00 in pain and suffering and $54.61 in past unreimbursable expenses) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
